

CLAIM, EVIDENCE, AND REASONING

CLAIMS

Claims are statements that you believe to be true and that answer a scientific question.

EVIDENCE

Evidence is factual information or data from experiments (e.g., observations, calculations, measurements) that contribute to the credibility of the claim.

REASONING

Reasoning is a description of the logic and/or scientific principles that fit the evidence together with the claim.